NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY HOLDS TODAY ITS ONE-HUNDREDTH COMMENCEMENT

TO MARK THIS DATE AS AN ACADEMIC OCCASION OF UNUSUAL SIGNIFICANCE IN ITS HISTORY, THE UNIVERSITY HAS INVITED AS ITS GUESTS THE PRESIDENTS OF THE PRIVATELY SUPPORTED SISTER UNIVERSITIES IN THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND VOTED TO CONFER UPON THEM THE HONORARY DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS.

THE Association of American Universities was established in 1900. Its founding was an occasion of great significance in the history of higher learning in America. American universities had grown in stature and strength during the nineteenth century as centers of scholarship and of advanced study, but it was still widely believed that graduate study could be pursued properly only in European universities. The purpose of the new association was to improve the standard of graduate study in America, to secure proper recognition of the academic strength of American universities abroad, and to encourage the raising of standards among non-member institutions.

The membership of the Association has been increased from time to time by the election of additional institutions. The Association of American Universities now consists of forty-one institutions.

Member institutions are:

Brown University	University of Missouri
California Institute of Technology	University of Nebraska
University of California	New York University
Catholic University of America	University of North Carolina
University of Chicago	Northwestern University
Clark University	Ohio State University
Columbia University	Pennsylvania State University
Cornell University	University of Pennsylvania
Duke University	Princeton University
Harvard University	Purdue University
University of Illinois	University of Rochester
Indiana University	Stanford University
Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts	University of Texas
State University of Iowa	University of Toronto
Johns Hopkins University	Tulane University
University of Kansas	Vanderbilt University
Massachusetts Institute of Technology	University of Virginia
McGill University	Washington University
University of Michigan	University of Washington
University of Minnesota	University of Wisconsin
	Yale University

Of these universities twenty-two are privately supported, and for this reason Northwestern has a close affinity with this group in organization and traditions. The chief administrative officers of these institutions have responded generously to help us celebrate our one-hundredth commencement. Regrettably, academic occasions of their own have prevented some of them from attending. The commencement speaker, President de Kiewiet of the University of Rochester, is currently the President of the Association of American Universities.

THE HONORARY DEGREES

DOCTOR OF LAWS — BARNABY CONRAD KEENEY

Though the youngest of those whom we honor today, he is rich in academic experience: as Professor of History, Dean of the College and of the Graduate School, he gained the intimate knowledge of Brown University's affairs which he brought to its presidency.

Presented by Elmer T. Stevens, Life Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — LEE ALVIN DUBRIDGE

A physicist and in the broadest sense of the term a doctor of science, his task as President of the world-renowned California Institute of Technology and as adviser to the nation is ever to keep our science strong.

Presented by David Graham, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR WILLIAM JOSEPH McDONALD

Ordained in Ireland, a priest in the archdiocese of San Francisco, later a Professor of Scholastic Philosophy, an eloquent lecturer, he has recently become by Papal appointment, Rector of the Catholic University of America. By virtue of that office he not only exercises a direct influence upon the studies of aspirants to the priesthood in this country but also administers an institution notable for its comprehensive graduate program.

Presented by James C. McLeod, Professor of History and Literature of Religions and Dean of Students of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — LAWRENCE A. KIMPTON

A philosopher and an administrator par excellence, he has been the leading spirit in what has been referred to, in more than the academic sense, as the renaissance of our great and always interesting neighbor to the south.

Presented by Gaylord A. Freeman, Jr., Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — HOWARD BONAR JEFFERSON

A clergyman and author of books on religion, he became, after an ancient custom, President of a university; namely Clark University, distinguished for having helped to pioneer in America a new era of graduate education.

Presented by Foster G. McGaw, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — GRAYSON KIRK

An authority on international relations, whose services to our government have been widely acclaimed, as President of Columbia University he coordinates the activities of the many provinces of an extensive academic empire.

Presented by Gilbert H. Scribner, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — ARTHUR HOLLIS EDENS

Trained in public administration, active in national and regional affairs, educational and religious, as President of Duke University, he exemplifies the principle that a university's prime obligation is to be useful to its community and to the nation.

Presented by Theodore V. Houser, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — NATHAN MARSH PUSEY

A classicist and stout champion of the humanities he constantly spurs and guides Harvard University's "ancient determination steadily and patiently to grow in strength and usefulness."

Presented by Payson S. Wild, Vice-President and Dean of Faculties of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — FRANK CYRIL JAMES

A former teacher of finance and political economy, he encourages at McGill University, and therefore throughout Canada, the development of that special form of national wealth, the human intellect.

Presented by Robert H. Baker, Professor of Chemistry and Assistant Dean of the Graduate School of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — CARROLL VINCENT NEWSOM

Teacher of mathematics, supervisor of higher education in the State of New York, a prime mover in the development of television in instruction, he has brought to the presidency of New York University a breadth of academic experience in keeping with the size and manifold activities of that institution.

Presented by Harold H. Anderson, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — GAYLORD PROBASCO HARNWELL

A physicist by training and a wartime director of Navy research, as President of the University of Pennsylvania, one of his chief concerns is to relate science to the total scheme of higher education.

Presented by Kenneth V. Zwiener, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — CORNELIS W. DE KIEWIET

Like the wily Ulysses a traveler, he left Ithaca, where for a time he was President of Cornell, to govern the fortunes of the University of Rochester with wisdom gleaned from two other continents.

Presented by Kenneth F. Burgess, President of the Board of Trustees of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — J. E. WALLACE STERLING

The third of our honored guests to forsake the teaching of history for administration, he presides over the affairs of Stanford University, which exemplifies in California those traditions of learning that make us wish to regard it as our counterpart in the Far West.

Presented by Stanley G. Harris, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — RUFUS CARROLLTON HARRIS

With a judicial mind, applied for some time to the teaching of law, and with long experience in banking and philanthropy, he has successfully promoted the cause of Tulane University for more than two decades.

Presented by William M. Spencer, Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — BENNETT HARVIE BRANSCOMB

Trained in the classic and humanistic tradition, he brought his learning to the illumination of the New Testament. As Chancellor of Vanderbilt University he has increased the luster and scholarly importance of one of the most distinguished universities of his native South.

Presented by Wade Fetzer, Jr., Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF LAWS — ETHAN ALLEN HITCHCOCK SHEPLEY

A practicing lawyer for thirty years and a member of industrial directorates, he acquired his interest in academic administration as a member of the corporation of Washington University. He now brings his extensive experience and knowledge of civic affairs to the presidency of the university which has been a leader in the cultural life of his native city.

Presented by Harold A. Smith, Trustee of Northwestern University

THE DEGREES IN COURSE

The appearance of a name on this list is presumptive evidence of graduation but is not to be regarded as conclusive.
